Centennial Plaza

Preserving the Past . . . Paving the Future

Don’t miss this chance to be a piece of history at the K-State College of Veterinary Medicine. The outdoor classroom between Mosier and Trotter Halls has been renovated to become the College of Veterinary Medicine Centennial Plaza. The engraving is done on site.

The 12”x 12” polished granite plaques highlight the centennial plaza risers and entry walls. The 4”x 8” and 8”x 8” natural finish granite bricks are featured in the centennial walkway and plaza area.

Brick Options:

- 4”x 8” granite brick
  Engraved with up to 3 lines of text

- 8”x 8” granite brick
  Engraved with up to 4 lines of text

Plaques:

- 12”x 12” polished granite plaque
  Engraved with up to 6 lines of text OR 3 lines of text with a logo. For engraving options on the 12”x 12” plaques, call the Development and Alumni Office, 785-532-4043.

Duplicate Bricks and Plaques

A duplicate brick or plaque may be ordered for the same price as the original brick. The text on the face of the brick will be identical to the one placed in the plaza.

The back of the duplicate brick will feature the CVM Centennial logo.

Duplicate bricks will be shipped to the address you provide on the order form.

College of Veterinary Medicine History Book

“A Century of Excellence”

In celebration of our centennial birthday, Drs. Ronnie Elmore and Howard Erickson have written a book chronicling the past 100 years of K-State CVM.
