

Giselle Cino, from Asuncion, Paraguay, visited the veterinary school for 4 months early in 2009. She is finishing her veterinary degree in Paraguay and came here to gain experience in gross and clinical pathology. During her time she participated in necropsy rotations with the KSU senior students and also attended rounds with the pathology residents.

Giselle Cino, third from right.