

OFFICIAL PROTOCOL

ACADEMIC DISMISSAL

Immediate dismissal from the DVM program will occur if:

- A. The student earns a grade of “F” or “NC” in any course in the clinical curriculum.
- B. The student earns a combination of more than two “NC” or “D” grades within the clinical curriculum.
- C. The student earns a second “NC” or “D” grade in the same rotation in the clinical curriculum.

Disciplinary actions up to and including dismissal from the DVM program may occur if the student:

Neglects his/her academic and/or professional responsibilities at any time. These responsibilities include, but are not limited to, required attendance in lectures, laboratories, discussion periods, patient care, rounds, ICU and emergency duties, and other activities where participation is deemed by the faculty as an essential part of the professional student’s educational experiences.

Displays unprofessional behaviors including, but not limited to, telephone or sexual harassment, disruption of class or regularly scheduled activities on the CVM campus by disorderly conduct, posting of inappropriate materials to the internet, threatening behavior, or alcohol or substance abuse. The Dean will charge the Student Board of Ethical Behavior to adjudicate cases of professional and academic misconduct as defined by the guidelines under the constitution of the Student Board of Ethical Behavior.
