

OFFICIAL PROTOCOL

FAILURE TO PROPERLY ATTEND PATIENTS

Failure to provide proper care for a patient as instructed by a senior clinician or other neglect of patients assigned to a student may lead to an F grade in the rotation. If, in the judgment of the faculty, negligence is of such a magnitude or nature that the student's ethical or professional values are not at a level to merit graduation, the faculty may petition the Course Coordinator to assign the student an F-grade.